Health Department Invites Families to Community Baby Shower on October 3rd

The Lincoln County Health Department in partnership with the Lincoln County Parenting Support Network (PSN), are excited to host a Lincoln County Community Baby Shower on Tuesday, October 3rd from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm at the Lincoln County Service Center (801 N Sales Street, Merrill). This is a free event for families expecting a baby and parents, caregivers, grandparents of children ages 0-18 months! We encourage you to bring someone along with you to this event. Kids are welcomed. There is no registration for this event, come and go as you please!

Participants will receive a care package that includes baby essentials and educational materials such as diapers, wipes, starter toothbrush, and more! While supplies last. Booths may also have additional resources and take home items for families.

“As a new parent myself, I have a lot of questions and wasn’t aware of all the resources and information available to me and my family right here in Lincoln County” states Lexi Buntrock, Public Health Educator for the Lincoln County Health Department. “We are hoping this event connects expecting families and those with young children in their lives with the education and resources they need and want”.

Connect with local organizations and learn more about these topics at our event.

- CPR and choking demos (from 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm)
- Car seat checks
- How to find or start up childcare
- ABC’S of safe sleep for babies
- Healthy homes and home safety education and resources
- Talk to a Public Health Nurse about immunizations
- Mental health and well-being resources
- Chiropractor - body scans
- Developmental milestones for babies
- Women, Infants and Children Program (WIC)
- Breastfeeding support
- How to promote early literacy
- Parent support resources
- Public Assistance
- Housing Assistance
