Youth Mentorship in Lincoln County -Kinship of Tomahawk -Big Brothers Big Sisters	Members received an update from the Big Brother Big Sister and Kinship mentoring programs. Highlights -Programs work with families in need. -Programs are in need of volunteers and funding. -BBBS has increased matches, Kinship has a waiting list but had a very nice 4 page write up in the Tomahawk Leader which helped with matches. -Both programs provide events for matches this is something perhaps the coalitions could partner with in the future example cooking demos.
LWL Reports	Shelley reviewed the template members for collecting data on	Shelley will review with coalition

-Quarterly Reports -Quarterly Newsletters	the Google spreadsheet. We could possible get rid of lead partners and dates on the template. We do need to capture health outcomes when possible versus outputs. We will need to report this to partners as it is needed for funders. -Shelley is looking for information for the Quarterly LWL Email Newsletter. She received information from Debbie and Kristin.	facilitators and modify database as needed before next meeting.
3. Other LWL Program Updates from Members -LWL Calendar Update -Coalition Operations	-LWL Calendar has been update. Nutrition meetings have changed. -Jane shared that she does have donation monies available for coalitions. She also will be having a health fair this year. -Shelley shared a Nutrition Coalition update she is working with Tomahawk School District and Lincoln County to do a worksite wellness program and Parkside preschool with a garden project. -Karen shared Sugar Out Day is scheduled. New this year is snack boards. -Mental Health First Aid for Youth will be at the end of February. We will be hiring an intern for the Healthy Minds Coalition.	Hersil stated we will review bylaws at next meeting.
4. Promoting Other -Coalition Priorities	Tabled
5. Adjournment	Karen motion to adjourn at 2:45 p.m., seconded by Kristin. All ayes, motion carried.
