3. Community Health Improvement Plan -Presentations -Dashboard for Outcomes and Indicators -Quarterly Reports	Shelley asked members if they had, any contacts for presentations. Members also suggested a YouTube video might also be good. Shelley will work on getting something lined up for the following organizations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Tomahawk School District - Merrill Area Public Schools - Tomahawk Wellness Committee - Rotary - Optimist - Lions Members reviewed the dashboard. It was determined to go back to January 2018 for data entry. We will shade in gray anything that is not applicable. The spreadsheet with all measures will not be as descriptive as the more in-depth objective worksheet. Instead of using the wording Quarter 1, 2 etc. we will use months. Members created a coalition calendar that includes when dashboard data is due as well as quarterly newsletters.	Kristin will get the dashboard on Google. Shelley will fix up formatting and add key indicators collected to date. Shelley will send out draft of Live Well Lincoln Calendar 2019.
4. Branding of Live Well Lincoln -Logo	Shelley presented logo ideas for the committee. Thoughts are to have 4 similar logos so they all connect to the overall campaign of Live Well Lincoln. Suggestion	Shelley and Kristin will work with a graphic designer to create coalition logos by our

-Quarterly Newsletter	was made to use the same graphic for the logos but just change the name and color to represent each coalition. Melissa shared a few examples of images that could be used. Shelley explained that it is difficult to have a graphic designer to work on it for free; are we ok hiring someone? Hope stated she is ok using Sacred Heart donation dollars for this purpose. Motion by Krueger and seconded by Williams to pay the graphic designer that has been working on the logo up to $500 to create all 4 logos. All ayes. Motion carried.	next meeting.
