Terms: Net 30 subject to terms and amount of credit. All quotes are valid for 30 days, after which price, quantity, models and amounts are subject to change. All quoted hardware components are subject to manufacturer availability and their perspective lead times. Once a quote is accepted, Salamander will provide a processing and ship ETA based upon your order make up and the current processing queue. If your order requires expedited fulfillment, Salamander will apply a 5% rush fee, calculated based upon total order value. Although a shipping estimate may be provided, customers are responsible for the actual shipping costs.
